PARTNERSHIP

TEDxJMI will be joining the league of major TEDx events like NSIT, IGDTUW, Jamia Hamdard and 1600 other universities around the world. All organized by passionate volunteers like us. But without brands like yours, none of this would be possible.

SPONSORING US

WHY SPONSOR US?

TEDx conferences always gather heavy and sustained interest from the community.

As a TEDxJMI partner, you will have the opportunity to engage in an authentic dialogue with a valuable audience. Talk to us to find out how.

TEDxJMI partners will get the opportunity to test their ideas for the future and be challenged to positively impact the community and planet in new ways.

YOUR CHOICE, YOUR TERMS

We realize that your brand is valuable and we want to ensure that you get the best value for your contribution. That is why you can choose the right deliverables for your brand and decide your own terms.

The partnership will include premier recognition leading up to and during the conference. We will work with you to create unique branding opportunities based on your specific needs.
